

An important note of change to our clients and friends

Beginning in January 2017 Scrap & Spa will change its name and purpose as an ongoing business. Our new name will be Red Arrow Hideaway. The reason for this is simple, we have seen a marked change in the scrapbooking industry over the last 5-7 years. Big box stores have wiped out small scrap book stores and now even the big box stores have shrunk their selections as the digital scrapbooking march goes on, also eroding the craft itself. We have also seen a dramatic shrinking of the getaway market itself. Red Arrow Hideaway will still provide weekends for scrapbooking with spa services for our clients and friends as we have always done. But we will be more of a retreat getaway for others who wish to do so and want use the studio for other purposes or specialized crafts.

Also for people, families and private groups who wish to rent the property for a quiet getaway, or a women's group getaway weekend in a great place and area not far from all that Southwestern Michigan has to offer. Going forward, all current and future reservations will be honored as is and we will continue to do so. Our new website, available in January 2017 "redarrowhideaway.com" will still have the same reservation features with spa selections as always for our clients that still use us as a scrap & spa getaway. While our name might be changing, the principals have not. We appreciate our longstanding and loyal clients and we remain committed to them as always but we are also opening new doors for other people to enjoy us and the area.

On a legal note, we will continue to own the name Scrap & Spa which is a federal trademark, scrapandspa.com and other monikers as service marks we use and own. We encourage you to keep making your reservations on scrapandspa.com as they and the calendars will be transferred to redarrowhideaway.com

No, we are not going anywhere, we are just changing our name to reflect the changing business climate we are in.
